

ORGANIZATION:

NOTE-able Singers

General Information

In approximately 100 words, please explain what your organization does and how it served the community in your most recently completed Fiscal Year.

NOTE-able Singers is a Bloomington-based women's show choir that performed on-site in senior residential communities in the south and west metro area so these groups can enjoy live music, and participated in civic functions. In our 2013-2014 season, we worked under a new director for the first time in 19 years, participated in the first BFAC Farmers Market Open House to add new members, and our members became more proactive with fundraising efforts due to discontinuation of Taste of Chocolate.

Additional Notes

If necessary, include additional information needed to clarify specific line items in this report in the space provided below.

This was the first season without our major fundraising event, Taste of Chocolate. We continue to discuss how to replace that income with a different fundraising project, alone and/or collaboratively. We also began to make grant applications a priority for the group.
